

KATELYN (KATIE) BOSS

401-477-3441 | keboss@umass.edu | linkedin.com/in/katelyn-boss/

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

University of Massachusetts Amherst, Graduate History Association Officer, Amherst, MA Aug 2026 – Present

- Managed the Instagram account, responsible for correspondence through the official organization email
- Contributed to workshops for graduate students on topics such as research organization, time management, etc.
- Assisted with the Graduate History Conference, primarily through correspondence and outreach

University of Massachusetts Amherst, Graduate Teaching Assistant, Amherst, MA Sep 2025 – Present

Courses Taught: Colonial Latin America; History of Baseball; U.S. History since 1876

- Designed lesson plans for three weekly sections for one history class per semester (~60-120 students)
- Lead discussions in groups of ~20 undergraduates from diverse academic programs and backgrounds
- Respond to student inquiries, grade assignments and exams, and hold weekly in-person office hours

New Bedford Whaling Museum, Collections and Curatorial Intern, New Bedford, MA Jun 2026 – Aug 2026

- Catalogued and researched hundreds of mugshots from the Ash Street Jail Collection in TMS Collections software
- Conducted initial primary and secondary source research to contribute to an upcoming permanent exhibition
- Consulted architectural and photographic records and chose objects for display to give input on exhibit design
- Attended staff information sessions and workshops in the collections, curatorial, and museum learning divisions

RI AFL-CIO & RI Labor History Society (RILHS), Research Intern, Providence, RI Jan 2025 – Aug 2025

- Researched and wrote biographies of ~150 recipients of the RILHS awards over 70+ years of history
- Consulted newspaper archives, interviews, and other records to uncover local stories for publication

EDUCATION

MA in History; Graduate Certificate in Public History, University of Massachusetts Amherst Expected May 2027

BA in History; BA in Art History (German; Gender Studies Minors), University of Rhode Island May 2025

Activities: Semester Abroad in Salzburg, Austria; Co-Founder and President of Science Fiction Club

Roles: Disability Mentor (2 yr.), Archives Assistant (1 yr.), Gallery Attendant (1 yr.), Research Fellow (4 mo.)

HONORS AND AWARDS

Dr. Charles K. Hyde Public History Program Fellowship (2026)	UMass Amherst History Department
Caldwell Writing Prize for Best Paper (2026)	UMass Amherst History Department
Undergraduate Humanities Excellence Award (2025)	University of RI Center for the Humanities
History Department Book Prize (2025)	University of RI History Department
AIFS Overseas Ambassador Scholarship (2023)	American Institute for Foreign Study
Dr. Woods Memorial Award for German Studies (2022)	University of RI German Program

SKILLS

Historical Analysis; Research and Interpretation; Archival Processing and Cataloguing; Collections Management; Exhibit Design; Research Writing; Teaching and Mentoring; Critical Thinking; Data Entry; Organization; Communication; Computer Literacy